

Our partner hotels

The island has some of the finest international hotels, where modern day luxuries are matched by traditional hospitality and charm. The cuisine can be cosmopolitan or indigenous. Naturally enough fresh seafood is a speciality of the island - with lobsters, crab, prawn and squid heading the extensive menus. But for a taste of traditional Sri Lanka, there is a full range of local dishes including spiced curry and rice, plus a profusion of delicious fruits - mango, bananas, pineapple, mangosteen, avocado, papaya, rambuttan and of course, you can sample "Ceylon Tea" - the finest flavour in the world.
